THE STYLE FILES

PBI SPEAKS TO THE AREA'S MOST KNOWLEDGEABLE SOURCES FOR BEAUTY, FASHION, ENTERTAINING AND HOME DECOR. BY LOLA THÉLIN

When it comes to getting the job done right, it's best to go to an expert. They offer practical tips, realistic advice and already have tested products in the real life. PBI spoke to four locals that are gurus in their fields. Simon Doonan dishes on clothes, designers and accessories. Tim Quinn reveals his concealer tricks and beauty must-haves. Celerie Kemble divulges her favorite furniture shops, and Carrie Hanna describes her version of the perfect party.

REDEFINING ROOMS

Celerie Kemble
HIGH-PROFILE INTERIOR DESIGNER

TICKLE ME PINK "I love a beautiful pink room. People don't realize that a very pale pink is actually a neutral." For a great pink shade, Celerie suggests Farrow & Ball's Pink Ground.

PAINT 101 Celerie has several picks for high-quality colors such as Benjamin Moore and Pantone color books, and to color match, she uses Fine Paints of Europe. When she needs a custom paint color, she works with Christopher Rollinson Design in New York City.

PERFECT PIECES For furniture that can hold its own in decor, Celerie visits Antique Row's Harris Kratz, Lars Bolander and Dolce Antiques, and Mecox Gardens in Palm Beach. When she's not custom making her own furniture or buying from trade sources, she lists Hickory Chair and Laneventure as furniture brands with great buys, and always shops online at 1stdibs.com.

BETWEEN THE SHEETS Celerie uses bed sheets and linens from Sharyn Blond Linens, Leron, Dea or Leontine Linens for comfort and style in the bedroom.

SCENT-SATION "Jo Malone. I am crazy about their candles; grapefruit is my favorite scent."

MAGICAL MOTIFS For patterns, Madeline Weinrib Atelier, John Robshaw Textiles and Ankasa carry vibrant pillows and rugs as does Rosemary Hallgarten and Vanderhurd.

WORLDLY FINDS For far-flung objects, Celerie browses the tables at the Marché aux Puces in Paris, the Olympia Fine Art & Antiques Fairs in London, and of course, flea markets.

SOUL GLOW The easiest way to spruce a room is to relight it. Celerie suggests adding vegetation to the room and putting up lights in the base of the tree. For beautiful lights, visit straydogdesigns.com, and New York City's Alpha Workshops and 145 Antiques, she advises.

SIMPLY USEFUL "Wonderful trays are great. Mary Mahoney carries wonderful vintage and new trays. They look pretty on a bureau or in your bathroom, and they make great gifts too."

SUPPORT ARTISTS Celerie admires young, talented working artists such as Natasha Law, Steven Sclaroff and husband-and-wife team David Larned and Sarah Lamb.

LIFE OUTSIDE For outdoor furniture, Celerie favors her mother Mimi McMakin's Palm Beach Collection for Laneventure. "You can really hunker down in the [seats] and read."

WALLPAPER YOUR WORLD "When I was starting out, I wish they'd told me to wallpaper my walls. It makes the most dramatic impact in a room. Find a wallpaper you love and put it up in your entry or kitchen, a room that you don't have to coordinate with existing things."

BEST IN BEAUTY

Tim Quinn
GIORGIO ARMANI CELEBRITY FACE DESIGNER

SHEER DELIGHT “Rose gold is one of my favorite shades and the most versatile for almost any skin type. In general, fair skinned women look best in cooler shades like pastels, whereas medium to dark complexions look best in warm Mediterranean tones.”

TOUCH UP It might not be a traditional concealer but the YSL Touche Éclat is a beauty must-have. It comes in several tones, adds slight coverage and illuminates and brightens the skin.

SO FRESH For an everyday cleanser, Tim loves Shu Uemura Skin Purifier. “It’s so fantastic because there is one for every skin type, and it effectively removes makeup without stripping the oils from the skin.”

DEEP CLEAN Kiehl's Pineapple Papaya scrub is a personal favorite of Tim's, who uses it a few times a week. “It's gentle and gently exfoliates the skin, leaving it refreshed and clean.”

ON THE GO For a quick cleanup, Tim uses Garnier Nutri-Pure Cleansing Towelettes. “They're in a portable, resealable package and are fantastic for removing makeup and cleansing the skin.”

BLEMISH BE GONE Kiehl's Blue Herbal Spot Treatment is fantastic for quickly eliminating redness, says Tim. “In a pinch you can also use Visine as a quick fix to reduce redness.”

TIDY UP Don't skip out on a toner; it helps rebalance your skin's pH, particularly if you have oily skin. A great option is Lancôme's Bright Expert Intense Brightening Toner.

SCULPTED CHEEKS “I recommend applying blush using a blush brush. Place the brush on the apple of the cheek and flick outwards toward the hair. [Giorgio Armani] sheer blush #10 is a rose gold tone and looks well on most complexions.”

SUN WORSHIP Tim uses Hampton Sun Serious Shimmer Cooling Spray “Bronze” to achieve smooth, silky skin. The body mist hydrates the skin with aloe vera, chamomile, and vitamins A and E.

TALES OF A PARTY

Carrie Hanna
COOKBOOK AUTHOR, EVENT PLANNER

GIFT BEARER “A gift has the most impact when you find something that is a ‘favorite’ of the host, whether it's wine, food or a specially scented item,” says Carrie. For a dinner party, consider giving Hans Turnwalk napkin holders. If the host is a good friend, offer a gift from your home that the host doesn't have everyday access to, such as fresh lemons or herbs from a garden.

TABLE DESIGN When setting the table, use what you already have. Carrie mixes it up with white coral-pattern plates from Z Gallerie, square Joseph Abboud plates from Bloomingdale's and Williams-Sonoma's La Mer Apilco Sealife plates. For fun accents, use coconut cups from Hobe Sound's Coconut King.

ASSIGNED SEATING Keep the conversations afloat by arranging guests by party personalities. “Sometimes it's best to put two talkers together, doctors together or people who, say, love to travel. Better to find a common thread among your guests than to assume opposites attract.”

À LA CARTE Let creativity flow when it comes to place cards. Offer items that guests can take home, such as Godiva chocolates, holiday ornaments or old, funny photos of the guests.

THE BUBBLY BAR Offer two varieties of Champagne, such as Laurent-Perrier Cuveé Rosé and Veuve Clicquot to ensure everyone's liking. To set a fun party tone, always have a full open bar and have the bartender create a signature cocktail for your guests.

JAMMING OUT Carrie starts the evening with lively guitar music during cocktail hour to amp up the energy, followed by a mix of hits and classics during dinner, and segues into dance and party music at the end of the night. “Avoid the slow, moody or melancholy; it'll put your guests to sleep.”

SMALL BITES “My all-time favorite appetizer, Avocado Bruschetta, is from my cookbook, Florida's Backyard. It's a crowd pleaser.”

SWEET TOOTH No dessert is more pleasing than Julia Child's classic chocolate mousse served with freshly whipped cream, Carrie claims.

CHEAT SHEET “Take something off your to-do list by buying from a great gourmet shop like Carmine's, American Gourmet, Whole Foods or GreenWise. When I need a fun but simple dessert, I'll pick up cupcakes from DD's Cupcake Shoppe in Jupiter.”

FABULOUS FASHIONS

Simon Doonan
CREATIVE DIRECTOR OF BARNEYS NEW YORK

LIVIN' IT UP For a night on the town, Simon suggests wearing a wacky '80s vintage frock, a Lanvin outfit or choosing an Alber Elbaz work of art. For shoes, "Manolo Blahnik is still the grooviest. He never gets ugly." If you need a classic ensemble, wear some Chanel but not too much. "I do not believe in getting too classic and timeless. You can end up looking like a prison guard."

COCKTAIL CHIC "The Barneys New York Collection—do not call it a private label!—is so chic and cocktailish in a Mad Men 1960s kind of way."

WORDS TO LIVE BY "Support Christian Lacroix!"

WINTER FRILLS This winter, beat the cold with a Balenciaga camel coat. "The graphic, tough, hired-assassin looks from Alexander Wang really float my boat, too."

BUCKLE UP For Simon, belts should either be insanely simple or wildly complicated. "Anything in between is tragic."

À LA MOI When it's time to dress himself, Simon's favorite labels are Band of Outsiders, Thom Browne for tailored clothing and Gucci for shoes. If Simon is having a hip-hop moment, he'll wear white sneakers to a black-tie event. "I like to get dressed for my own amusement and try not to obsess about what other people might think."

LIVE, BREATHE, ENJOY "Fashion is a spectator sport. Soak it up! You don't have to become a slave to fashion to enjoy the parade. If [a woman] uses fashion as a form of creative self-expression, she will always be at the top of her game."

WORKS EVERY TIME Simon's five must-have items for a stylish lady: black suede pumps, a bejeweled caftan, a Lanvin purse, a black cocktail frock and a pair of white capri pants or jeans.

THRILL OF THE HUNT For Simon, vintage items from Claire McCardell or Rudi Gernreich are musts. "Cameron Silver [of Decades] in L.A. has gorgeous gowns, and he is so knowledgeable."

LIP LOCK "A good Nars lipstick can get you out of any scrape."

OPTICAL ILLUSION "Everyone seems to think Ed Hardy is trashy but I love it, especially the sunglasses. Totally Liberace!"
